DADA Gallery Walk April 25, 2015

Saturday, April 25, noon – 8:00 p.m.

FEATURING OVER 35 ART SPACES

This Spring Gallery Walk features over 35 art spaces throughout Dallas and North Texas, including Arlington, Irving, and Denton.

Art lovers will have the opportunity to socialize and tour a full spectrum of galleries and special exhibitions—all in one day, all for FREE, all in North Texas.

A gallery guide with map can be downloaded at www.dallasartdealers.org.

Hours at each gallery vary; please see individual listings.

For more information e-mail info@dallasartdealers.org.

A good place to start is the twelve member galleries in the Design District.

About DADA

The Dallas Art Dealers Association is an affiliation of established independent gallery owners and nonprofit art organizations in the Dallas metropolitan area. DADA is dedicated to promoting the highest standards of ethical practice within the profession and to increasing public awareness of the role and responsibilities of reputable art dealers and nonprofit visual art spaces.

About the Edith Baker Art Scholarship and Artist Career Development Fund

The Scholarship is funded by the Edith Baker Arts and Education Fund, the Steven L. Green and Kenneth R. Craighead Jr. Fund for Arts and Education and DADA fundraising activities. To celebrate its 20th anniversary in 2005, DADA created a scholarship honoring a respected member of the Dallas art community and one of its founding members, Edith Baker. Edith owned and directed The Edith Baker Gallery in Dallas for nearly 30 years before retiring in 2004. Every year, the Edith Baker Art Scholarship and Artist Career Development Fund, a 501(c)(3), financially benefits students pursuing the study of visual arts, along with giving those students a gallery internship, a mentor, and an artist studio visit. ### About Creative Arts Center

Creative Arts Center of Dallas (CAC) provides a nurturing environment for people to discover, develop, and express their artistic visions. Located on a two-acre campus four miles east of downtown Dallas, CAC offers more than 500 classes and workshops per year in such disciplines as ceramics, clay sculpture, drawing, glass, jewelry, metal arts, mosaic, painting, photography, print-making, and stone carving. CAC also offers free arts programming to disadvantaged children. Not only a visual arts school, CAC is also a thriving arts community for a diverse range of students from teens to seniors. Visit CAC at 2360 Laughlin Drive in East Dallas or www.creativeartscenter.org.

About The McKinney Avenue Contemporary

The McKinney Avenue Contemporary (The MAC) is a nonprofit organization that stands as a Dallas advocate for creative freedom, offering the opportunity for experimentation and presentation of art in all disciplines. It supports the emerging and established artist's role in society by providing a forum for critical dialogue with their audiences. This relationship is cultivated through education and innovative programming. Visit www.the-mac.org for more information.

About the Business Council for the Arts

The Business Council for the Arts (BCA) is a nonprofit organization made up of businesses and business professionals. It provides programs in employee engagement and retention, leadership development, creative thinking, diversity, and the development of new initiatives based in the arts. The BCA serves as a connector and convener between businesses, municipalities, and arts and cultural organizations, and is an advocate for business support of the arts. The BCA was founded in 1988 as an initiative of the Dallas Citizen's Council by Raymond D. Nasher and a team of civic leaders who recognized that great communities depend on a vibrant cultural life. Visit www.ntbca.org for more information.

About the Office of Cultural Affairs

The Office of Cultural Affairs (OCA) provides opportunities for all Dallas citizens and visitors to have access to the arts and the means of cultural expression. The Office of Cultural Affairs works with its citizen advisory board, the Cultural Affairs Commission, to foster the development of the cultural system in Dallas. The OCA provides a variety of programs and services, including the management and operations of seven cultural facilities, a public art program, cultural funding programs, and WRR Radio. More information on the Office of Cultural Affairs' programs can be found on its website at www.DallasCulture.org.

H.M. Saffer II - The Couleur of Light

Artist reception on April 25th, 7-10 p.m.

LuminArte is pleased to present a solo exhibition of paintings by international artist, H.M. Saffer II from April 25th through June 13th. In this collection of vibrant landscape paintings, eastern style and sensibility meets western innovation and subjectivity on canvases adorned with bright, color-saturated pixels of light. Reminiscent of the Impressionist and Post-Impressionist styles of European Modernists combined with the technical brush work and fluid, painterly applications of the Far East, H.M. creates a new vision of sunlit impressions in nature. Meet the artist during the April 25th reception from 7-10pm. Both the reception and exhibition are free and open to the public.
